

OPEN CALL FOR YOUNG ARTISTS

In the framework of the international project Refresh+: “Young artists refreshing heritage sites and legends”, we are looking for 4 artists from Slovenia, 18-30 years old to become part of an international multidisciplinary team and participate in co-creation processes.

This call is for you if you are:

- 18-30 years old
- student, recent graduate or in the early stage of your career;
- active in the field of visual arts, including new media, film and video, performing arts, including music, dance, theatre and circus
- interested in tangible and intangible cultural heritage
- open minded and curious
- willing to engage in co-creation processes, work interdisciplinary and in collaboration with others
- have a good knowledge of English

Selected artists will:

- Be part of the Refresh+ team throughout the project, working on innovative approaches to interpretation of heritage and legends
- Participate, together with 13 other artists from Romania, Slovenia, Finland and Spain in the 5-day Bootcamp organized in Split (Croatia) in April 2021 (travel and accommodation costs covered)
- Participate in the production week in Slovenia (October 2021) or Romania (February 2022) (travel, accommodation and production costs covered)
- Be provided with coaching and mentorship during the whole process including the marketing training in Spain (June 2022)
- Learn and develop co-creation strategies
- Have their work presented and promoted internationally
- Be part of the international network

How to apply?

Send the following documents to info@zgodovinska-mesta.si

- CV
- Portfolio (max 10 MB)
- Motivation letter stating your interest and how the participation in this project can contribute to your professional development (max 1500 characters)

Deadline: February 10th, 2021.

Selected candidates will be announced by March 1st, 2021.

About the project:

“Refresh Plus. Young artists refreshing heritage sites and legends” is a European project co-funded under the Creative Europe Programme, Culture Sub-programme and coordinated by the Association of Historic Towns of Slovenia with the support of partners from Romania, Spain, Finland and Croatia. The main aim of this project is fostering capacities of the Cultural and Creative sector. The focus of the project is to contribute to guide the new generations of European artists in strengthening their capacities to get an independent international artistic career and market positioning.

<https://www.refresheurope.eu/>